Kansas City, Mo (KCTV) -- A popular haunted house in Kansas City, Missourui may soon be in the record books for adding a new slithering addition that may be the largest in the world.

The Edge of Hell Haunted House has added a a 300 pound snake.

"The reticulated python is actually the only snake known, that it's been proven they've actually cut people out them. They are man-eaters," said snake trainer Larry Edgar.

Medusa is a snake that is hard to miss.

"She's a legit seven years old, over 300 pounds maybe well over 300 pounds, 24 to 26 ft long and still growing," said Edgar.

In about one month, the Guinness Book of World Records is about to make her officially part of history.
